Your feedback

“ My son was recently in the Day Surgery Unit, Sunshine and Dolphin Wards and I would like to praise all the nurses, doctors, cleaners, caterers, and security staff. I have only ever experienced excellent, professional, friendly and caring services at Kingston Hospital. ”

Good news

Our nurses and midwives celebrated their contribution to the hospital at our annual Nursing and Midwifery conference and awards and we were joined by Chief Executive of the Royal College of Midwives Cathy Warwick.

On target

We were one of the few Trusts in the country to achieve all the cancer targets throughout the last financial year.
